From Your Pastor

We received the “Answering the Call” Prayer Guide in our information packets this past Sunday. (If you did not, please be sure to get one this Sunday.) This guide serves as a helpful prompt for prayer as we reflect on our church, its renovations, and our shared ministry and giving efforts.

One of the prompts asks, “Who has been part of the body of Christ for you?” This made me reflect with joy and gratitude.

John was my Sunday School teacher for the boys’ high school class. He was younger and cooler than my parents, and he was a lot of fun. At the time, I thought he had lived such an interesting life. He was also willing to get to know us and share his experiences.

Looking back, I don’t recall the specifics of any one specific lesson or Bible story. What stands out to me most is his deep commitment to following Jesus and the enthusiasm he shared for it. He was eager to share this commitment with my friends and me, encouraging us to also dedicate our lives to following Jesus.

As the years went by, we lost touch, but I will always remember his enthusiasm for his faith. So, who have been the people that have embodied the body of Christ for you? Thank God for them.

Blessings,
Ande
